Yes, we can!

What does it mean to be a woman? What does it mean to be feminine?

Truth is, you are the only one to decide it!

Whether you choose to be a mother or not, to have a partner or to be single, to feel glamorous wearing a fancy dress or feeling comfy with your baggy jeans...

You can express your femininity in any way you want!

Because there is not only one way to be and feel like a woman -each of us is different. And that's our superpower!

We can be proud of ourselves

We don't need to wait for anyone to give us flowers -let's treat ourselves with the love we deserve! Give yourself a pampering gift or give it to your friend to remind her how much you appreciate her. Our recommendation? A trio of beautifully scented hand creams!

Target the challenges of mature skin

The aging process causes a lot of damage to your skin. The oestrogen level and the number of melanin-producing cells diminish which leads to loss of collagen and moisture. The skin is significantly drier, less dense and resilient. The wrinkles deepen, age spots appear, and the face contours are gradually less defined. NovAge Time Restore can help to revive your skin and redefine what mature skin can be so your outer self matches how you feel on the inside.

Cream Spatula S01

MOISTURISE

Good night for your skin

When you sleep, your skin is at its optimum time for recharging and repairing, which makes it more accepting of replenishing ingredients in night creams. It is not exposed to the external aggressors so the skincare treatment can focus on repairing without protecting. Night cream, rich in active ingredients, supports this time of natural activity in the skin. So, even if you go to sleep late, try to finish your night time routine earlier in the evening to capitalise on that activity. Choose your perfect night cream and wake up visibly rested every morning.

Use spatula to get the perfect amount of the cream.

SKIN STORY: NECK AND DÉCOLLETÉ

Did you notice that specific areas of your skin tend to display signs of ageing more than others? The skin on your neck and décolleté is especially affected both by genetics and environmental factors like exposure to sun and urban pollution. Additionally, being structurally some of the least resilient on the body, it is more susceptible to the damage. That's why it deserves a special treatment. Discover a powerful, concentrated age-defence serum clinically proven and designed to help firm, sculpt and elasticise the skin, reducing multiple signs of the passing time.
